

The little daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George Morrison, who was quite sick last week, is much improved.

Charlie Green, a well known townsman, has secured a position with the Colorado National Bank, in the safe deposit vault department.

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. McBeth are now living in their new home at 1832 Marion street, where they will be pleased to welcome their friends.

See the Modern Girls of '76 in "December's May," March 30th, at Fern hall.

J. R. Contee, president of the Douglas Undertaking Co., entertained the employees of the company and their families at 4 o'clock dinner Sunday, March 6.

Mrs. Basil Cook, who has been very sick for several months, passed away at 12 o'clock Thursday. Funeral will take place from Shorter Chapel, Sunday at 1:30, Rev. W. H. Thomas officiating.

MUNROE TROTTER, the editor of the Boston Guardian and president of the National Equal Rights League, addressed a fairly large audience at Shorter Church last Monday evening on "The Negro's Responsibility and Republican Victory." Mr. Trotter was very interesting.

Mr. A. Harry Plummer, who died suddenly March 7th, in Los Angeles, Calif., was buried here Sunday, March 13th. The funeral was preached from Shorter Chapel, A. M. E. Church, by Rev. A. Milton Ward, who accompanied the remains here. Having come to Denver in the early '90s, Mr. Plummer was well known to the older residents of the city.

Mrs. Hopkins, mother of Mrs. Spencer Burns, and well known resident of this city, is very ill at her residence, 2503 Clarkson street. The family of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Burns have been popular with Denver citizens for several years, and we join with the public in extending our sympathies and hope their mother will be restored to health.

March 30th, what? "December's May!" Where? Fern hall, by the Modern Girls of '76. Morrison's Orchestra (Himself.)

Mesdames Robt. Mitchell of 2744 Marion street and Samuel Bond of 2346 Emerson street attended nearly all the series of lectures of the Hon. Jas. D. Brooks on the Garvey Movement, and the impressions made on them have stirred the idea of real constructive work among our women, which will soon take a practical form. "Come in and work for the best interests of ourselves," say these women, "and we will not have to follow the old route of 'servants, obey your masters,' much longer." This is very commendable and shows the women of our race are ready to do all in their power to foster any organization that has for its purpose—the uplift of the Negro.

The drive for members of the Universal Negro Improvement continues; 200 members and $500 shares in Steamship and Construction Loan is the slogan of the Denver division, No. 118.

Messrs. J. R. Contee, Oglesbie Lawson and J. C. Cooper were hosts to a lovely dinner given complimentary to the Men's Club of the Redeemer at the Cooper residence, Wednesday night. There were thirty-eight present and enjoyed an evening highly intellectual and interesting. Attorney S. E. Cary was the speaker for the evening, and his treatise of his subject, "The Inefficiency of the Church," was masterful in oratory and logic, and historically instructive. Following this address the meeting was turned into a round table affair and splendid talks were given by Fr. Rahming, Dr. Terry, Mr. Stell, Mr. Townsend and Dr. Westbrook. The hosts were ably assisted by Mesdames Skillern, Contee, Lawson, Cooper and Walker.

The Negro Woman's Club Home Association held an enthusiastic and enjoyable monthly meeting. Reports for the year ending March 1st were received from the chairman of the departments and the president, secretary and treasurer. The treasurer, Mrs. Venzie Witt, was especially commended for her very excellent report. Election of officers was in order and all officers of the past year were re-elected. Mrs. Gertie Ross was named as chairman of the house committee. Mrs. Amelia Reeves as trustee and Mrs. Myrtle Moore as corresponding secretary.

The Self Improvement and Social Service Club entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Gross, as a parting compliment to Mrs. Alice Webb, who left Wednesday for her future home in Chicago. The presidents of the federated clubs were guests. The president, Mrs. Westbrook, in her pleasing manner, conducted an impromptu program. Instrumental and vocal music; Mrs. Coila Payne and Virginia Gash; short talks, bidding Mrs. Webb farewell and God-speed, by Mesdames Ross, Carey, Caldwell, Barnes, McBeth and Reeves. Mrs. Webb responded.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

These fine spring days are beginning to call the out-of-doors—the boys and the men. Less attention is being paid to billiards, carroms, checkers and other indoor games and sports, and baseball, marbles and other outdoor games are becoming popular. And the popular game of croquet is calling the fans again. Indeed, as early as the last of February players had begun to flock around the court, and the familiar ring of the round balls began to be heard. Never before has the season opened so early. Of course they all know that they are likely any morning to see the ground covered with six inches of snow, but they are determined to make the best of its while it lasts. Sims has already challenged the ever-ready King, even if the season closed on him last fall twenty games behind King.

The drum corps is progressing splendidly. To hear them from a distance one would be led to believe that he was listening to regular players. Their instructor is greatly pleased with their progress.

The Bible class, which meets every Thursday evening, promises to do well, provided spring does not come too early.

The Rev. Dr. Bainbridge, pastor of the Asbury M. E. Church, was the speaker at the meeting last Sunday afternoon. His subject was "Watch." His address was very interesting.

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon, being Palm Sunday, a program befitting the day will be rendered. The Rev. Dr. Stewart D. White, pastor of the Washington Park M. E. Church, will deliver the address. The program will begin at 4 o'clock, and all will be welcome.

From Monday until Friday, Rev. Collins of Pueblo, Colo., will conduct Passion Week meetings, starting at 8 o'clock.

On Easter Sunday the pastor will deliver an Easter sermon in the morning services; at 3 in the afternoon the Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. Kromwell, Mrs. Wilson and Miss Stella Reed, will give a program. At 7:30 the choir will render Fred W. Pearce's cantata, "From Cross to Crown."

Last Sunday evening Rev. A. M. Ward delivered a needful sermon. His text was taken from Mark 11:9.

We expect to have the pipe organ in by Easter; if not, we will certainly get it in before April is gone.

You Are Invited to Visit The Telephone Central Office

We welcome an opportunity to show our patrons how their telephone calls are received and handled in the central office.

Every patron who has visited an exchange and witnessed a switchboard in operation has found it to be a very interesting experience.

The knowledge you gain as to what the operators do when you ask for a number and how they get the person wanted makes for a better understanding between us.

The quiet yet swift manner in which telephone calls are handled can only be appreciated by an inspection of the central office.

We are anxious for you to know that we realize we have a duty to perform in serving the public, and we would be pleased to have you see what we do and how we do it, in performing that duty.

Such a visit should make the telephone more valuable to you and should aid us in our efforts to furnish you with the best telephone service.

Ran on Its Reputation.

A San Francisco man went to sleep in his automobile early one morning recently and when he woke up his machine had gone two miles from the last landmark which he remembered. The machine stuck to the road and behaved very properly during the chauffeur's nap.

Having a raft of friends is the only thing that keeps some people afloat.—Boston Transcript.

Gave Them What They Asked For.

Deacons seeking ministers for their churches often applied to Mr. Spurgeon, famous English pulpit orator. One asked him to send a student who could "fill the chapel," and got an answer saying that Mr. Spurgeon had not one big enough, but he thought he could send one who might fill the pulpit. A reply came that that was really what they wanted, and a minister was accordingly sent. It was Mr. Whale.

Deported as Undesirable.

Little Jean was filled with love and admiration for the tiny baby sister who, she had been told, had been sent her from heaven. The love and admiration changed to disgust, however, when the new arrival discovered that she possessed a strong pair of lungs which she exercised unceasingly. The other day Jean was overheard to remark to a little playmate "Just listen to her whoop it up! I bet she yelled like that in heaven and the angels chuckled her out."
