The meeting last Sunday afternoon was well attended, a large number of men being there for the first time, coming from many sections of the country. Dr. S. A. Stripling spoke on the good points of the platform of the promoters. Questions and comment followed the address, which showed thought and interest.

The committee of management held a largely attended meeting last Wednesday evening. Two new members, Mr. Lemuel R. Owen and Counsellor S. E. Cary have been added to the committee. Secretary Townsend made a full report of the plans and program for the coming season which was very interesting, and brought forth great praise from members of the committee. The treasurer's report showed all bills paid to April 1st, and $92 in the treasury.

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon the Rev. Dr. Griffin of Kansas City, who is here conducting a series of meetings at the Shorter A. M. E. Church, will address a meeting for men only at the "Y" building. Tuskegee Inst., Ala., Feb. 26.—That the Negro boy and girl have every right to be proud of their race was fully and very clearly shown by the splendid program rendered by members of the senior class in the Institute chapel, Monday evening. The term "Negro Night" was applied to the evening as the program consisted of selections concerning the Negro. Oration was delivered pertaining to every phase of Negro development, achievement and contribution to civilization. In addition to these numbers, musical selections, written by Negro composers, were rendered, among which were compositions of Harry T. Burleigh, J. Rosamond Johnson and two students of Tuskegee Institute, William L. Dawson and Alonzo P. Small.

The program was inspiring and interesting as well as instructive. The senior class and Prof. J. A. Wilson, head of the English department, deserve much credit for the unique program which was in keeping with the general movement to inspire pride of race—by teaching the children of the race more about the real achievements and contributions of the Negro—by using Negro literature in Negro schools.

Negroes' Self Respect and Self Maintenance Will Command Respect of Others

HON. JAMES D. BROOKS ON "THE GARVEY MOVEMENT."

"The Call of the Race" or "A Racial Call" was the message delivered by James D. Brooks of New York, Secretary General of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and Exponent of the Garvey Movement, at the Peoples' Presbyterian church last Thursday evening, the beginning of a series of lectures on The Black Star Steamship Company, The Negro Construction Loan and the Redemption of Africa. Nearly 300 persons were present in spite of revival services in two of the leading churches of the city, and the rapt attention given the speaker as he swayed the audience with his powerful appeals for race solidarity, race maintenance and participation in the good things of life, proved again the intelligence and spirit permeating the Negro of today, who is making a determined stand for real liberty, justice and a place in the recognition of the world for his contribution to civilization and the propagation of that democracy which knows no bounds. Among the very impressive expressions that fell from the speaker's lips were the following: "Every race has answered the racial call quicker and earlier than ours," "Our cause is not against the white man but Negroes who have not measured and even when given the vision refuse to accept," "The white man prepares to live while we prepare to die, even though we are aware that death is inevitable." The representative audience, including members of churches and various organizations applauded the truths as they proceeded with emphasis and it is the general opinion that Mr. Brooks stay with us will fill a long-felt want. Tomorrow a mass meeting at the Fern Hall will offer another opportunity for a large gathering to hear him.

The Secretary-General comes to Denver under the auspices of the Denver Division No. 118 of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities League, with Hewetson Watson as local president and Edward Davis, secretary.

Lectures will continue at St. Stephen's Baptist Church, Thirty-second Ave. and Lafayette St., tomorrow evening, 8 o'clock; Central Baptist Church Monday, 8:15 p. m.; Campbell A. M. E. Chapel, Tuesday, 8:15 p. m., and mass meeting at Fern hall, Wednesday, 8:15 p. m. Admission free to all.

Variation in Carpets.

Most carpets and rugs have but one usable side. Brussels has a pilelike velvet, but the pile is uncut. Wilton is heavier and more durable than Brussels, and the pile is cut, whereupon it appears like velvet. This carpet is so closely woven that it holds its surface. The Axminster rug (technically spool Axminster) is very much like Wilton, but has a looser weave.

Was a Mammoth Elephant.

Fossilized bones of a huge elephant recently discovered in France include a tusk weighing 440 pounds and a tooth weighing seventeen pounds. Scientists say that the animal must have stood over thirteen feet high.

Forgot His Wedding Day.

A husband was denied a divorce because he couldn't remember the date of his wedding. The judge probably thought that the man who could go and forget that wasn't suffering much from matrimony. — Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Ancient London Markets.

London's oldest markets are said to be Smithfield, where cattle were sold in 1150, and Billingsgate, which is reputed to have been founded in 400 B. C.

Millions for Fish Meals.

Two and a half million dollars is spent every week by the people of Great Britain on fried fish and potato chips, representing an average weekly provision of 30,000,000 meals.

Reading Matter.

It is estimated that over 155,000 different books, pamphlets and magazines are published annually in the different countries of the world.

Benevolence Well Repaid.

Benevolence is a duty. He who frequently practices it and sees his benevolent intentions realized, at length comes really to love him to whom he has done good.—Immanuel Kant.

The Speaking Voice.

It is a great mistake to try and talk above noise. It is so much easier and more effective to speak below it; a full, clear tone will carry when a shrill one is not only annoying but very tiring.

Greeks and Romans flavor their wines by steeping the leaves of violets and roses in the liquor until it acquires the odor.

SOME NATIONAL DISHES.

This apple cake, which comes from Denmark, must be tried to be appreciated:

Apple Cake.—Prepare the following cookie dough, using one egg, one-half cupful of shortening, one-half cupful of milk, one cupful of sugar, three-fourths of a cupful of flour, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder, one teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of vanilla. Mix well and divide into six portions. This will make two cakes. Roll each of the portions to fit a layer cake tin, let stand in a cool place for half an hour, then bake. Spread the three layers with apple sauce and over the top place whipped cream sweetened and flavored. Dot with bits of jelly and serve. The rest of the mixture may be made into cookies or baked and kept for another cake.

Jewish Fish Dish.—Take two pounds of salmon, halibut, haddock or cod. Use the bones and head to make stock. Place one cupful of chopped, mixed soup vegetables in a kettle, lay on them the fish and pour over the stock, cover and let cook until the fish is done. Lift the fish carefully to a hot platter and pour over it hot lemon dressing made as follows: Beat two eggs, add one-third of a cupful of lemon juice, enough fish stock strained to make one cupful; cook in a double boiler until thickened. Add butter a few bits at a time and pour the boiling hot sauce over the fish. Serve when cold. The butter may be omitted.

Belgium Potatoes.—Fry six slices of bacon until half done, remove from the pan and add one sliced onion. Cut three potatoes in one-inch cubes, add bacon, onion and two cupfuls of water, a bay leaf, a pinch of thyme and salt if needed. Cook uncovered until the potatoes are tender.

Spiced Baked Apples.—Core half a dozen large apples and fill the cavities with a mixture prepared as follows: One-half cupful of sugar, two tablespoonfuls of water, two tablespoonfuls of cracker crumbs and one-half teaspoonful each of cloves and cinnamon. Bake in a hot oven with a little water in the pan.

I will strive to raise my own body and soul daily into all the higher powers of duty and happiness not in rivalry or contention with others but for the help, delight and honor of others and for the joy and peace of my own life.—John Ruskin.

THE UBIQUITOUS LEFTOVER.

She is an artist, who can take yesterday's scraps and with a few strokes of her deft fingers produce a symphony in food combination. It is the unwanted, unexpected and results of blunders and inexperience which cause leftovers which are so hard to transmute and dispose.

There are two kinds of leftovers, those we planned and those thrust upon us. When we cook potatoes enough at one time to cream at another, we plan wisely, using the same heat, saucepan and time to serve for two processes.

The leftover is always with us and it depends upon the shiftless or thrifty house wife whether she will weakly "end all" and supply the garbage pail or brace up and tackle a salad, a soup, hash or croquettes.

A drawer with compartments should be in every well-equipped kitchen where a few nails, brads, tacks, a screw driver and hammer, pair of pliers and other often used tools are to be found in a hurry. Such an equipment will save time, the most valuable of all our possessions.

It would be appalling if we knew the carloads of bits of soap that are wasted every year in our country. In an ordinary sized household there will be plints of scraps which by reheating in water may be used as soft soap or put into the machine when washing. The practice in some homes to save the small pieces is a good one to follow. This may be done with toilet soap, wetting both the new and the old and letting them dry for a few hours; they will never separate. If this practice is followed there will never be bits of soap to throw away or bother to melt.

In France the head and feet of a chicken are never thrown away, but are cleansed and put into the soup pot. If there is not butter enough on the plate to scrape it is rinsed off with boiling water and drained over the soup. One pear or peach or banana with a patty cake will serve three with a dessert, where we will need three of each and possibly more to serve as many. It is saving the little bits which enables the thrifty French family to have a comfortable income in old age.

Communing With Herself.
One day while mother went to town Bobby was left in grandma's care, who, always being alone, had developed the habit of thinking aloud. After watching her going about her work, talking to herself the while, Bobby innocently asked: "Is you tellin' yourself somesing, grandma?"

Idea of Saucer Lamp Is Old.
The open form or saucer lamp is thought to be of Semitic origin. The Greeks and Romans developed this form carefully and in time it was a covered lamp, except for a small air hole, with figures on top and much carving. It became, indeed, an excellent and handsome ornament.
