Charged With Passing Counterfeit Money.

In Commissioner Burford's court Francisco Todaro, an Italian fruit vender on the corner of Commerce and Jackson street is being examined on the charge of passing counterfeit money. He bought seven dozen eggs from a countryman and gave him a silver dollar and received the balance of change, subsequently the countryman discovered that the dollar was counterfeit and had Todaro arrested. Todaro don't remember anything about the transaction.

On Webster On!

It is said that Webster: the photographer within the last three months has made wonderful improvements in the art of photography, particularly in the line of baby pictures. Mr. W. offers $25 reward for a baby that he can't catch with a smile. Remember that Webster will charge you a good round price for a photograph made at his studio.

At the Wigwam.

To-night at the wigwam the colored people will hold a mass-meeting, good speakers will address the audience, and a good time is anticipated.

Settled With the Comptroller.

County Tax Collector Gillespie has returned from his business trip to Austin. His settlement with the Comptroller shows that he paid that office $98,418.16, out of the total amount of $117,016.57, the difference between the amounts being accounted for by insolvent lists, sale to the State, erroneous assessments occupation tax receipts receipts returned, fees for advertising exchange on remittances, commissions and collecting, etc.,

The difference between the Comptroller's account and Mr. Gillespie was 90 cents which was in favor of Mr. Gillespie, the Comptroller allowing him commission where Mr. Gillespie had not taken credit.

The books of the comptroller's office show that there was 50 per cent more occupation tax collected in Dallas county than in Tarrant county, and it is believed that the assessment rolls will show 100 per cent more for 1887 than in Tarrant county.

Figures will not lie, and from this statement it will be seen how much Dallas county is in advance in natural wealth of Tarrant county.

Patterson on Deck.

Patterson, the people's druggist continues to serve the people of Dallas, with the finest chemicals and drugs in his prescriptions, and delivers them to any part of the city. All of his drugs and chemicals are of the freshest and purest, and prescriptions are compounded only by competent prescriptionists. His beautiful drug store is open day and night. Besides his large prescription business he dispenses the coldest soda and mineral waters, the finest cigars, etc. Anything in the drug line of the purest can always be found at Patterson's drug store, corner Main and Poydras streets.

Disturbing Religious Worship.

There is in preparation a session of the court house kangaroo court, Judge Kunz presiding. Tom Sims is the victim. The charge is disturbing religious worship at the East Dallas Baptist Church. He is at present under a 25 cent bond. He declares his innocence, as he was married on that night at that church, but that he is prepared to prove that the disturbance was created by lawyer Fitzhugh. The investigation promises to be very interesting.
When a reporter was interviewing Mr.
Sims he wore a sad, far-away look, as if he felt the pangs of persecution. The reporter could not help dropping a tear as he left him in his sadness.

A Great Mystery Solved.

Here recently there have been lots of residences decorated with exquisite designs of furniture and household goods of the latest styles, and there have been many inquiries where those elegant goods came from. Why, the Texas Installment Co., 619 Elm street, sell them on small, easy installments.
The poor as well as the bankers are invited to give us a call, and see for themselves that we sell on the installment plan as cheap as they can buy for cash elsewhere.

A Delightful Entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Nat Good entertained a number of their friends last evening at their hospitable residence on Good street, in honor of Mrs. Good's niece, Misses May and Willie Duff, of Fort Worth. Dancing and promenading constituted the evening's amusements. Among those present were: Misses May and Willie Duff, Florence Wright, Eula Lyne, Mattie and Lidson Yates, Lucy Guyton and Miss Batto, Messrs. Walter and Willie Mansfield, F. Henschel, L. and S. Hawkins, Chas. Burlew, Bird Walbridge, S. Thomas and others.

New Branch Meat Market.

Many of our citizens on Ross avenue will be glad to know that Mr. H. Harris, the old reliable butcher, will open on Saturday, July 30, a branch meat market at the corner of Ross avenue and Johnson street, where he will at all times keep the freshest and fattest meats. Mr. Harris, having unsurpassed facilities, will serve at this market the best beef, veal, mutton, pork, etc., that can be found in the market. A polite and experienced butcher will attend to your wants. This will be a great convenience to those who have had so far to send after their meats. Mr. Harris guarantees that at this branch the best of everything shall be kept and at as low prices as possible. In connection with the meat market a complete stock of family groceries will be kept.
They will be fresh and sold at the lowest figures. It will be under the management of Mr. T. G. Peyton, an affable and accommodating gentleman, who will see that your wants are supplied in a manner satisfactory to yourself.

"Nein; dis dond vas our fidget, nod at all. But, shemonendly schust look dose pockits at!"

The Greatest Raffle

And best chance of winning will take place at Bartlett & Coffman's livery stable about Saturday next. The National Renovating Co's two beautiful teams—blacks and creams—will be raffled at $2 a chance; only 400 chances. The highest throw takes the choice of teams and the lowest the other. Thus $2 buys two chances in two of the prettiest teams in the city. Raffle superintended by Bartlett & Coffman.
Horses and raffle list can be seen at their stable.

Success.

The ladies of Dallas and North Texas have appreciated the endeavors of Mrs. E. Chestnut, 612 Elm street to establish a millinery establishment equal to any in the North. Her shelves and show cases always contain the latest styles, most fashionable shapes in bon-nets and hats, and the latest colors and shades in trimmings. As fast as a new shape in bonnets or hats appears Mrs. Chestnut receives it. She employs only the most skilled and tasty milliners and the ladies can always get the latest styles and most fashionably trimmed bonnet or hat at her millinery parlors.
