

LOUISIANA FARMERS STUDY BETTER METHODS.

Baton Rouge, La., Aug. 3.—Last week there began in Louisiana a forward movement of vital significance to the progress of the race. Dr. W. R. Perkins, head of the extension service for this state and other prominent agriculturists, invited T. M. Campbell, Field Agent, for the United States Department of Agriculture, with headquarters at Tuskegee Institute to give the state the benefit of his experience.

That thousand of Negro farmers in the south are seeking the best methods for the solving of their problems and citizens were strikingly attested at meetings held at Delhi, Monroe, Grambling, Dubberly, Opelousas and Shreveport, where over 5,000 farmers were addressed by T. M. Campbell, Dr. Perkins and several other prominent white extension workers.

The outstanding feature of the week's event was the reception tendered Field Agent Campbell by the farmers. He discussed the kind of education that is needed for the white farmer and so long hoped for, the kind that is as free as air and sunshine. He said that around 80 per cent of the Negroes in the South depended directly or indirectly on agriculture. The problem of the day, which should concern people interested in the progress of this region, he exclaimed how to reach this large mass of people and to improve their home and farm life.

His speeches were pregnant with humorous stories which carried home the burden of his splendid message. He used a story told by an Englishman who said that the South was asleep. He revealed the fact by contrasting agricultural methods of the agricultural region of the South with other section of the country. He emphasized that the masses of the South must be reached in a negative manner but absolutely positive.

That the negro owned 38,000,000 acres of land and was long on his achievements but miserably short on good homes, were among the pertinent facts brought out by this well known authority on extension work among Negro in the South. He discussed frankly among the Negro farmers some pertinent things which are conducive to racial progress. He asked them did they have enough actual room in their homes to separate the sleeping quarters of the sexes of the family. He made an appeal for better things for the Negro farmer, made directly to the farmer, he made an appeal for more wholesome conditions for his children and the women of their homes.

These meetings have created an intense awakening and from present indications, the campaign will reach every parish in Louisiana where there are Negro farmers.

Several new members were added to the roll. Meetings are held on the third Wednesday evening in each month, all Virginians are welcome.

JOHNSON MADE DIRECTOR OF HUGE FUND.

(By A. N. P.)

New York, Aug. 3.—A million dollars have been given away James Johnson of this city is one of the chosen to help with the job. James Johnson's famous $1,000,000 fund is to endow "unfavorable causes," according to announcement by Walter Nelles, an attorney representing the American Fund for Public Service, just incorporated in Delaware.

According to its incorporators, the new organization "is analogous to various community trusts now in successful operation in a number of the larger cities." Johnson explained, however, that the governing bodies of these existing organizations are "too conservative" and that the American Fund for Public Service was designed to establish a fund controlled by persons who will not be conventional in their conception of public service and who will give preference to new and experimental agencies.

The incorporators were announced as Norman M. Thomas and Lewis Gennett of this city, associate editors of the New York Times, and Lovett of the University of Chicago, and Roger N. Baldwin, director of the American Civil Liberties union.

J. W. Johnson, Director. Directors of the fund were announced as Prof. Henry F. Ward of Union Theological seminary, James Weldon Johnson of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Rabbi Judah I. Magnes, Scott Nearing, William Z. Foster, secretary of the Trade Union Educational Council of Chicago, Miss Mary E. McDowell of the University of Chicago settlement, and the incorporators.

In 1913 Garland achieved wide notice when he refused to accept $1,000,000 as his share in the estate of his father, James A. Garland of Boston, declaring he would not accept money he had not earned. Some time later he explained that he had changed his mind and would accept the legacy because he wished to settle $200,000 on his wife and dispose of the remainder as he saw fit.

More notoriety came to him a year ago when he introduced Miss Lillian Conrad, a Boston art student, into his home near North Carver, Mass., where upon his wife took their daughter and son to live with her family in Boston. Miss Conrad later returned to her home and last April Garland and wife were reported re-united after the birth of a son, but it is now said that their reconciliation did not last.

It is said at the American Civil Liberties union that it is the present intention to expose entirely of the proceeds of the fund by giving it to the causes which the directors favor, and that they are opposed to establishing a permanent endowment.

Establishment of the American Fund for Public Service was announced as a national fund to promote experimental agencies for public welfare.

LINCOLN MANOR.

Mrs. Martha Moore, the 35 year old mother of Mr. G. Rucker is very ill at this writing. Although Mrs. Moore is blind, she still smiles on those who come about her.

The Reverend H. Harris is indeed a great hunter. The crows even know him. While on a hunting trip he was bitten on both hands by a crow who evidently was tired of being molested.

Mrs. Annie Smith of Ft. Worth, visiting her sister, Mrs. L. E. Williams, on Anderson street.

Mrs. Janis Watkins of Santa Barbara, Calif., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Webster. Mrs. S. Hanks and Mrs. Mary Edward on Lawrence street.

The Misses Melma Townsend and Lucile Enos of Terrell, who have been visiting their mother and sister, Mrs. Wm. Townsend, on Hooper street, have returned home.

Mrs. Ed Hunn made a flying trip to Fort Worth on business.

Mrs. Wm. Townsend entertained a large number of young people on her lawn Friday night. Music and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Mrs. P. Kennedy and family have moved into their new home in Ideal Addition.

On Thursday, the Reverend M. G. Eschaba, literary of South African and great gospel preacher delivered a very thoughtful and convincing sermon to an appreciative audience.

On Saturday evening, the ladies of Club No. 3, gave an entertainment on the church campus.

Sunday School opened at the usual time with the teachers and Sept. at their post. The lesson was interestingly discussed by the students. Mr. J. W. Enos of Terrell, a strong religious man, reviewed the lesson. The collection was good.

At eleven o'clock the pastor, Rev. J. S. M. Alexander preached a powerful sermon. There was much rejoicing among his people, as he pictured so beautifully, "The New Day."

The night service was good. The Reverend J. R. Hendricks, pastor at Lewisville, Texas, preached to a very large audience.

The collection for the day was good. Mrs. M. A. Moseley on Hooper St., entertained the Missionary Ladies at her home, Monday evening. A delicious menu was served to a very large number of ladies.

U. B. F. HOLDS 37TH ANNUAL GRAND SESSION AT MARSHALL.

Marshall, Texas, Aug. 3.—The 37th annual session of the United Brothers of Friendship was held here last week. The opening session held in the Bishop College Chapel was well attended and spicy program.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Hon. W. F. Bledsoe who has been head of the Order for 30 years.

The Grand Lodge got down to business Tuesday morning with the appointment of the various committees of the Order. The Grand Lodge officers made their annual reports and all revealed the marvelous growth and healthy condition of the Order.

For his firm and determined stand for law and order and his recent participation of the lynching of two colored youths, Sheriff John Sanders of Harrison County, upon recommendation of Grand Master Bledsoe, was commended by rising vote of the Grand Lodge and Grand Temple combined; the Grand Master declaring with much emphasis that "if Texas and the South possessed more public officials with the courage, stamina and due respect for their oath and obligation as Sheriff John Sanders of Harrison County, there would be fewer abortions of justice and our Temples of justice would insure a fair and square deal to every alleged violator of the statutes."

The report of Grand Secretary C. H. McGrudder disclosed the fact that the Order has assets exceeding a quarter of a million dollars, viz: Book value of real estate, $161,942.04; mortgages, $138,881.00; checking account, $28,057.77; time deposit, $17,000.00; total ledger assets, $245,881.21. Non-ledger assets: Uncollected rents, roll call and fixtures, $5,357.75; furniture and fixtures, $5,000.00; supplies, $109.25; real estate increment (Est.) $38,067.96; in hands of local lodges and Temples, $2,613.51; total assets of lodges, $41,541.62; gross amount of assets, $292,120.83.

The following officers will direct the affairs of the Order for the next year: W. F. Bledsoe, Marshall, Grand Master; R. F. White, Palestine, Deputy Grand Master; Prof. C. H. McGrudder, Victoria-Houston Grand Secretary; Dr. G. S. Connors, Waco, assistant Grand Secretary; Prof. J. W. Jamison, Texarkana, Grand Treasurer; Dr. O. L. Bledsoe, Marshall, Grand Medical Examiner; trustees, Prof. William Anderson, Smithville; Prof. John R. Grigsby, Houston; P. H. Dean, Navasota.

SHOULD LITTLE BABIES SLEEP ON THE Ground?

You are bound to answer NO. But that is just what is happening at the Dickson Orphanage since the disastrous fire of last Tuesday night destroyed the only home which those 125 little children have ever known. Fatherless and motherless, they had made their home there—knowing no father but Rev. Dickson—having no mother but the matron over them knowing no home but the building which is now in ashes.

In that fire they lost everything that they owned. Their clothes were burned. Their beds were burned. Even the dolls with which they played were swallowed up in the ruins of that building.

Now they are sleeping on the ground—Poorly clad, exposed to the weather—they are sorely in need of help.

Can you refuse to aid them? Will you condemn them to sickness from exposure by failing to help them?

WOULD YOU DO THIS? PEOPLE OF TEXAS, THE FLIGHT OF THESE CHILDREN IS A CHALLENGE TO YOUR CHRISTIANITY. HELP THEM NOW.

Send a donation of money—of clothes—of bed linen—of shoes—NOW to the Children of the DICKSON ORPHANAGE, Gilmer, Texas.

ROYAL LIFE, HEALTH & ACCIDENT INSURANCE CO.
Of Texas
PROPOSED CAPITAL STOCK $25,000
Fort Worth, Texas

There is being an effort made to capitalize an Old Line Insurance Company, with its home office in Fort Worth, Texas, THE ROYAL LIFE, HEALTH and ACCIDENT INSURANCE CO.

Bonds have been made and in the hands of the commissioner of insurance and banking at Austin, Texas, and a permit has been issued to sell stock on the 15th day of May, 1922. The stock is selling at one hundred dollars per share and the sale of it has already passed our expectation.

This is the first time in the history of Texas, to the knowledge of the writer, that the colored people have had a chance to buy stock in an Old Line Insurance Company.

Line Insurance Company, with its home office in Texas, an enterprise organized by colored men with and for colored people.

We need not say to buy stock in an Old Line Insurance Company is not a safe investment for the people the country over knows better. There is no reason why any one making as much as ten ($10.00) dollars per week, should not own as much as one of these shares as long as they last. We are capitalizing for twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars and any one who is able to pay ten ($10.00) dollars, fifteen ($15.00) dollars or twenty-five ($25.00) dollars down, and pay that share out within eight months should treat themselves to as much as one share.

Doctors, laboring men, preachers, teachers and women of all walks of life should invest in this enterprise. Just think how many Old Line Insurance Companies, can you call to your mind that have bursted or failed? A precious few. I suppose, your investment is carefully looked over by the most competent insurance men in the country, the commissioners of insurance.

Insurance is one of the highest financial business the world over. You don't find agents going in crowds, offering the people stock in an Old Line Insurance Company. Did you ever stop to figure out the cause? Well, let us see can we figure it out? The first reason is, because it is deposited with the treasury of the State, guaranteeing everything on the policy, and every deal made by the Company and the second reason: they know a strict and accurate report must be made every year to the commissioner of insurance, makes everything mighty safe.

The colored people in other states, have built an Old Line Insurance Company, why not we of Texas?
