

WORK WHICH LINCOLN BEGAN, HE HAS NOW TAKEN UP AND WILL CARRY TO COMPLETION

Negroes of New York Hold Mass Meeting to Express Their Gratitude to Roosevelt and Pledge Their Support, as a Race, to Him.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
New York, March 6.—The attitude assumed by the president toward the negro has been indorsed by an enthusiastic mass meeting of colored people held in this city at which Rev. W. D. Derrick of the First Methodist Episcopal church, made a stirring appeal to his people to turn their eyes to the door of hope opened by the president to the black race. At the mention of the name by the speaker there was a tremendous outburst of applause from both men and women. The speaker indulged in a bitter denunciation of Senator Tillman of South Carolina.

The meeting constituted the first step toward the formation of the Roosevelt Invincibles, which organization will favor the nomination of President Roosevelt.

Bishop Derrick will speak in Philadelphia on a similar mission and will address the colored men in many of the principal cities of the country and organize them into local "Roosevelt Invincibles," who will use every effort toward placing the colored men as delegates in the next national convention.

On the platform of the meeting was James H. Hays of Virginia. During his speech Bishop Derrick spoke of the appointment of colored men to office by Grover Cleveland and other presidents, but said that whereas these presidents had appointed negroes Roosevelt appointed men.

"Color is nothing," said the speaker, "no matter how much the people harp on them. Why, there are colored men whom I would not allow in my kitchen, much less in my dining-room; yes, and there are white men whom I would not allow in my kitchen, either."

At the close of his speech the bishop offered the following resolutions, which were adopted amid cheers:

"Resolved, That in his excellency, the president, the Honorable Theodore Roosevelt, the liberty of the world has a most fervent defender, civilization a gallant representative, humanity a generous protector and the American nation a type of civil valor and heroic self-denial which ought to characterize the first magistrate of the republic.

"Resolved, That we recognize that the great and unfinished task of Lincoln has fallen into his hands, which will be properly and successfully accomplished for the happiness and prosperity of the nation.

"Resolved, That we pledge ourselves from this time henceforth to use our influence for his nomination and election to the presidency in 1904.

"Resolved, That we form ourselves into an association to be known as the Roosevelt Invincibles, recommending similar organizations to be formed throughout the country."

"BROTHER GEORGE IS SO RICH; AND I AM SO POOR!"

Woman Found Dead in a Hovel Said to Come of Nabobs.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Denver, March 6.—There is considerable speculation here as to the antecedents of Mrs. Georgia Stanley, who died of asphyxiation in a hovel on the North Side, where she was found by neighbors in an unconscious state lying on a bed beside the dead body of Major Hurd, an aged veteran of the civil war. Mrs. Stanley not long ago told a friend that her father, Lord Allan, formerly governor of a province in India, was the founder of the Allan line of Atlantic steamers. In a notebook found in her effects appears the following:

"Brother George's fortune was estimated at $35,000,000; but at this writing I suppose it is $400,000,000. To think how rich brother George is, and how poor I am."

Nothing definite is known of the brother except that it is believed that at one time he was in Spain or the Barbadoes. Some time ago, when Mrs. Stanley's poverty-stricken condition was brought to the attention of Dean Martyn Hart of St. John's cathedral, he communicated with Sir James Grant of Toronto, who Mrs. Stanley claimed was her half-brother. A reply was received to the effect that Sir James was not Mrs. Stanley's half-brother. No arrangements have as yet been made for Mrs. Stanley's burial.

Major Hurd, who was an engineer in the army of the Cumberland, will be buried here under the auspices of the G. A. R. Instructions came from F. W. Hurd of Salt Lake, a cousin of the major, as to the disposition of the remains.

SOME SNEAKTHIEF IS NOW WELL-FIXED FOR THE TIME

Secures Some $3,000 Worth of Jewels From the Pigeons Who Were Just Spreading Their Wings.

Boston, March 6.—Jewels valued by the owner at $3,000 are reported to have been stolen from Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Pigeon of this city, who have started on the steamer Farragut for Jamaica. The only information given to the police is contained in a note brought up the harbor by a tugboat captain.

The note says that Mr. Pigeon on boarding the steamer at noon placed his handbag containing the jewels, considerable cash and valuables in his stateroom and returned to the deck where, with Mrs. Pigeon, he bade good-bye to friends. After the steamer left the wharf Mr. Pigeon went to his stateroom, finding it had been entered and his handbag taken. A tugboat captain was hailed and given a letter notifying the police of the loss and describing the property.

MRS. HUMPHREY WARD'S LATEST SUCCESS

MRS. HUMPHREY WARD.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
London, March 6.—Mrs. Ward's "Lady Rose's Daughter" is published here. The story is a novel which reviews it is the Morning Post, which says:

"Mrs. Humphrey Ward's latest novel has been subjected to due criticism. On the other hand it is alleged that the book is founded on the letters of Miss Lez-pinetz, to whom only casual reference is made without any formal acknowledgment of indebtedness. On the other hand, the book has been hailed by the critics as probably the strongest and most self-contained work of the author. It certainly is very strong and clever. For once Mrs. Ward has given us a novel of society and intrigue."

IN THE KINLOCH CASE

Said British Army Officer Convicted Himself of Misconduct.

London, March 6.—The Grenadier guards scandal has been officially explained by Mr. Broderick, and the responsibility for the suspension of Colonel Kinloch has been placed where it belongs. Colonel Kinloch had convicted himself by his own testimony, the commander-in-chief being the judge.

Mr. Broderick's statement was unexpectedly strong and Colonel Kinloch's defenders were temporarily silenced. The statement was generally commended in the journals of the house of commons.

Talk about the public school president has ended. Sensible journals are taking the tone of the Times and contending that the country is entitled to get its full money's worth in the army, and that subalterns' courts and brutal, degrading punishments are unworthy of British traditions.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

Mott Says the Jury Is Too Severe--Cannot Remember Crime.

SPECIAL TO THE INTER MOUNTAIN.
Missoula, March 6.—Contending that the judgment was severe, as he did not remember having killed his wife, Louis L. Mott heard from Judge Webster his fate for his crime.

Late yesterday afternoon, before a crowded courtroom, the district judge passed sentence of death, naming May 4 as the day for the execution. Mott made no statement beyond claiming the jury had been too severe, as he knew nothing of his act.

There is little likelihood of his being executed at the time mentioned, as his attorneys are preparing a bill of exceptions and statement on motion for a new trial. Failing to secure this they will appeal to the supreme court, which will operate as a stay.

Lemoyne Mott, a California uncle of the condemned man, who is said to be wealthy, has started for Missoula to come to the aid of his nephew.

GUATEMALA ARMY MASSED

Trouble in Central America Is Talked of Again.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
San Francisco, March 4.—A number of coffee planters who have just arrived here from Guatemala on the steamer Colon state that the war preparations in that country are still going on. The entire army of Guatemala is massed on the frontier of Salvador. Every able-bodied man is being pressed into service as a soldier and, consequently, there is a scarcity of workmen.

Alexander Cousin, father-in-law of President Zelaya of Nicaragua, was a passenger on the Colon. Speaking of the situation in Nicaragua he said: "President Zelaya is in sympathy with Sierra de Honduras, and before I left two bodies of men, numbering 500 in all, were sent to join the forces of Sierra. All the trouble now exists between Guatemala and Salvador, and President Zelaya is in sympathy with the latter country. He has massed his troops along the frontier in anticipation of trouble."

HE GAVE FREELY TO YALE COLLEGE

NOW HE IS DEAD AND HIS WIDOW IS IN WANT, SO THE COLLEGE WILL HELP HER OUT.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

New Haven, Conn., March 6.—By giving to Yale's library an exceptional collection of Russian and Slavic literature, and more recently a small library of music, the late J. Sumner Smith, Yale, 1853, so far impoverished his fortunes that Yale graduates have taken steps to raise a fund for the aid of his widow. Recent losses have made inroads upon her own moderate fortune.

In all, it is said, Mr. Smith gave Yale the result of about $12,000, spent intelligently and with the discrimination of an expert librarian. He made his gifts anonymously, and not until after his death, on February 13 last, were they coupled with Mr. Smith's name.

The gifts were made out of his salary as assistant librarian. Mr. Smith's hope that a fund to bear his name and equal in value the gifts may be subscribed for additions to the collections, with the provision that the widow shall have the use of the income for life.

She says she pointed out the most valuable goods and held the bags and baskets while her husband filled them.

We acknowledge that there are still great gaps in our control of life's phenomena, and at present there is no danger biologists will not have an opportunity for important discoveries."
