Wallace Davis, a member of the Dearfield Colony, dropped in town for a few days, during which time he visited a meeting of the Universal Negro Improvement Association and became a member.

George Simms of Kansas City, Mo., is the possessor of a fine home, recently purchased from an old Denverite. It is commendable of our people in their resolution to become property owners and representative taxpayers in the community.

Master Atwell Rose, the young violinist, formerly of this city, but now of Los Angeles, will head an orchestra, which, together with the choir of the First A. M. E. Church (Rev. A. M. Ward, pastor) will present a program at Philharmonic auditorium on May 2.

Miss Minnie C. Sanderlin and James B. Russell, to the surprise of their many friends, were quietly married Saturday evening, April 16, by Rev. Thomas at his residence. A reception will be tendered the young couple at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Chapman as per wedding invitations.

Oliver Hardwick, the hard working secretary of Mountain Lodge of Elks, No. 39, is on the sick list since last week, Friday. Mr. Hardwick is well known in our community, being one of our leading mechanical chauffeurs and his many friends hope for his betterment.

James E. Travick, one of the leading citizens of our community, has acquired nine lots at 2537 South Clayton street, where he intends to erect a beautiful residence. Mr. Travick has made good in Denver for the several years he has been a resident, and we wish him and family every success in his undertaking.

RECORD "VILANELLE" on the Columbia Grafanola, sung by Madame Patti Brown, was heard on the Grafanola at the concert last Thursday evening, the same being played first on the instrument and afterwards sung by the artist. It makes a very pleasing record and should be in every home.

R. M. GRISBY, resident of Harmon for many years and well known in fraternal circles, has been appointed to look after the interests of his people in the Building Laborers' Union. Mr. Grisby is honest and conscientious and having the confidence of his associates, is bound to make good. Merit will tell.

J. H. Edwards, employe of the Interstate Trust Company, Sixteenth and Lawrence streets, is promoted to the custodianship of the building. He served the Hon. John Springer for a number of years when the building was formerly the Continental Trust Co., and from his years of service and devotion to duty he has received this position meritoriously. Well done, Ed! We know men like you who have always given satisfaction, will reap your reward.

SAMUEL BRANNUM, employe of the First National Bank, Seventeenth and Stout streets, for several years, has been rewarded for his faithful services in being promoted to the position of custodian of the safety deposit vaults of the bank. Mr. Brannum is well thought of among the officials and members of the clerical staff of this bank, which has established a reputation as being the greatest fiscal institution of the West. For honesty of purpose, integrity and true manliness, our friend Brannum gets credit in this community, and the Colorado Statesman is pleased to offer its congratulations, knowing that he will fill the position creditably.

Miss Mills is a graduate of the East Denver high school and is very efficient, while the intended groom is very capable and served with distinction in the late World's war. Hearty congratulations for the young folks are extended by the COLORADO STATESMAN.

DANIEL STROTHERS, our famous football star, returned from New York last Tuesday after several months visit with his brother. Mr. Strotthers speaks very encouragingly of Negro business enterprises and assests with emphasis that if you have the money to start business with, "It's right there for you." He opines that the "Garvey Movement" seems to be the logical solution of the Negro question, as it has set the world of Negroes thinking, pooling their resources, investing wisely and securing that recognition whereby they will be accepted as men. Glad to see you return, Dan, and we hope to hear from you relative to your experience in the metropolitan city.

RUFUS BOLDEN, proprietor of Bolden's Barber shop, returned to the city after an absence of three months in California, where he went to regain his health. He is very much improved and after visiting San Francisco, Oakland, Los Angeles, San Diego and Tia Juana, Mexico, is much impressed with the phases of business among his people. While climatic conditions are very favorable to restoration of health, and business on the move, yet Mr. Bolden prefers this portion of the Rocky Mountains to dwell and is of the opinion that Denver holds her own with any other city. The barber's friends are glad to see him again.

FAMILY REUNION.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

The memorial services and unveiling of a tablet in honor of the late Miss Cleo Irene Hobson, was held last Sunday evening at the Peoples Presbyterian Church. The program consisted of musical numbers and short addresses. Miss Velma Parsons spoke for the Sunday school and told of her splendid work she accomplished in that line of work. Mrs. Carrie Hicks followed for the High School Club of the Y. S. S., and her eulogy was very befitting to the beautiful character of the deceased and the great loss felt by the organization. Rev. W. H. Thomas of Shorter Chapel also paid a high tribute to the beautiful life she led and the good she had done in the community should be an inspiration for all who knew her. Mrs. M. E. Morrison, on behalf of the choir, told of her association with the deceased and cited many instances of her efforts in promoting the church work to a higher standard. Mr. Gilbert Brickler was also among the speakers who did justice to the deceased. Rev. J. A. Thomas Hazell spoke briefly of her noble character and her unceasing work in the church and community. The musical numbers consisted of a duet by Mesdames Simira Owen and Evelyn Cowan, "Open Wide the Gates," while the choir sang, "The Lord Is My Light" and "When Will Thou Save the People, Lord?" The memory of the deceased will be perpetual in the minds of her many friends on account of her sweet disposition.

Mr. James B. Russell is one of our most worthy and sterling young men and is making good as a letter carrier in the local postoffice. He is active in church work and a member of Shorter Church choir, where his wonderful basso voice can be heard every Sunday morning.

Mr. Frank Lenore is also one of our worthy young men and is making good. THE COLORADO STATESMAN congratulates these young people on their early start in married life and wish for them much joy and happiness.

Edible Lobster the Favorite.
"It is the edible variety of lobsters," remarked the Observer of Events and Things, "which can open their mouths without putting their foot in it."

The Telephone Is Back to Normal

During the past three or four months there has been a steady improvement in the telephone service, both Local and Long Distance.

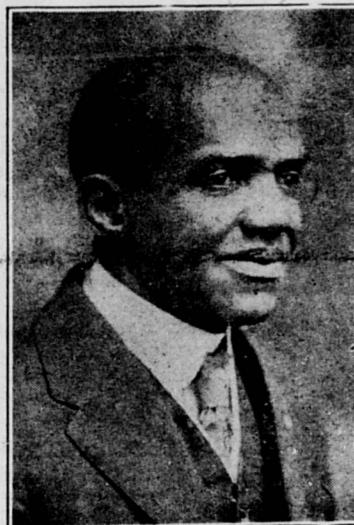

Congestion of plant has been greatly relieved; intensive training of operating employes has added to operating efficiency, and the morale of our organization's personnel is back to pre-war standards.

There is a constant, determined and concerted effort on the part of the employe body to render the "old-time" quality of Telephone Service, and this spirit on their part is being rewarded by the appreciation of a grateful public. Certainly there is no other industry which was affected so adversely by war conditions that has made so rapid a recovery in point of service.

We especially call attention to improvement in our Long Distance Service. The long delays occasioned by war-time activities are things of the past. Our long lines afford the most efficient means for the dispatch of business with distant points.

By the way, calls on a station-to-station basis will save you at least 20 per cent. as against the cost of calls for a particular person. If you are not fully informed on this point, ask our local manager and he will explain. He will also explain our reduced Evening and Night rates for Long Distance Service.
