Hancock Club at Hinckley.

To the Editor of the Globe.

HINCKLEY, Minn., Oct. 10.—We are happy to inform you and the readers of your valuable paper that the Democrats of this place on the evening of the 9th last, met and voted to nominate the ticket which will come to the conference. The nomination of Mr. Brown for campaign in which we are now engaged will stamp its impress upon the American republic for all time to come. Continue the Republican party in power for four years more and the character of the nation will be completely changed.

The leaders of that party claim that they have gained much in their cause.

If their claims are true, it is a party of quiet virtue and ever-victorious. Their record is plain to show that it is in the best interest of the nation to have them in power.

Provisions were good and generally low.

MARK LANE.

The "Express" Review of the Market for Last Week—The Late English Harvest Unfavorable—Wheat and Barley Advanced.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—The Mark Lane Express, in a review of the British grain trade of the past week, says: In consequence of heavy rains throughout England, the remnants of crops still outstanding must be considered of no marketable value. Threshing has been entirely suspended and wheat in stacks has suffered somewhat. The present position is favorable for an advance in all kinds of British grain. The market has been decided in favor of sellers. Friday there was a very small supply of foreign grain, particularly marketable. Those having supplies of grain available during the week, and sold ready for delivery were very free. Stock in store now exceeds 1,000 bushels. Just now the prospects are not at all brilliant for the bull side of the cereal, but the old story is that it is always the weakest in the market that is most popular.

The people of the United States have been most corruptly treated by the administration.
