Ford's Hair Pomade

Fifty years of success have proved the merits of this preparation.

the merits of this preparation.

What is more attractive than a beautiful head of hair? It has been the ambition of women in all ages. The use of Ford's Hair Pomade makes stubborn, harsh, kinky or curly hair softer, more pilable and glossy, easy to comb and arrange in any style desired consistent with its length, as long as the Pomade remains in the hair. This result may be obtained by one thorough application according to directions. Two to four applications a month will keep the hair in satisfactory condition, and two to four bottles, regular size, are usually sufficient for a year. Directions with every bottle.

Ford's Hair Pomade

removes and prevents dandruff, invigorates the scalp and keeps it from getting harsh and dry, stops itching and prevents the hair from falling out or breaking off and gives it new life and vigor. Absolutely harmless. Used with splendid results even on children and inants. Delicately perfumed its use is a constant pleasure. A most satisfactory toilet preparation for ladies, gentlemen and children.

Don't buy anything else alleged to be "just as good": if you want the best results buy Ford's Mair Pomade. Look for this name.

CONTENTS OF THE STOCK POT

Housekeeper Must Know Tastes of Her Family Before Making Her Final Selection.

What to put into a stock pot has often been discussed by those who are interested in culinary affairs. It all depends upon what the stock is re-quired for; and to determine just exactly what to put in must depend upon the requirements of the household In a kitchen where clear soups are required, discrimination is necessary, and there must be a separate pot kept for meat stock alone. For ordinary households, where clear soups are never used, everything savory and eatable can go in. One or two precautions are necessary. Examine all scraps and see that nothing is tainted, or the whole will be spoiled. When adding fresh bones, remove any marrow, for, although a valuable fat, it gives a strong flavor to soup which is very disagreeable and is difficult to di-The marrow can be reserved for marrow toast, marrow balls or marrow pudding, or tried out with other scraps of fat for frying. Break the bones into pieces, not too small, and put them into the pot.

RECIPE FOR CURRANT BREAD

Delicious Confection as It Should Be Prepared-A Specialty of Famous Chef.

Scald but do not boil a cup and a nalf of sweet milk and a cup of water. Add two tablespoonfuls of sugar and a teaspoonful of salt. Cool to lukewarm, then add a compressed yeast cake softened in another half cup lukewarm water and stir in enough whole wheat flour to make a stiff batter. Allow this to rise. If set in the morning early it will be ready by ten o'clock. When light add one beaten egg, a tablespoonful of melted butter and one cupful of well washed and thoroughly dried currants. Beat well, add enough more flour to make a dough stiff enough to knead. Work well, mold in two loaves, place greased pans, brush with melted but-ter and let rise until light. Put in a hot oven, but as soon as the bread browns reduce the heat one-half and leave in about half an hour longer. If preferred, white bread may be made in the usual way, adding a liberal quantity of dried currants.—Emma Paddock Telford.

Sweetbreads and Mushrooms. Blanch two pairs of sweetbreads and slice them. Cut the stems from 20 mushrooms. Beat the yolks of three eggs. Cook together in the chafing dish blazer a tablespoonful of butter and one of flour. When smooth pour upon them gradually one and a in the sweetbreads, cook for two min-utes, add salt and white pepper to taste, and put in the mushrooms. Cook until very hot; pour in gradually the egg yolks and cook just long enough, to heat thoroughly, but not long enough to cause the eggs to cur-dle. Serve immediately. — Harper's Scalloped Apple Pudding. Cut one small stale loaf in halves, emove all soft parts, and crumb by rubbing through a colander. Melt one-fourth of a cupful of butter, and add to bread crumbs, stirring lightly with a fork. Cover bottom of buttered pudand dish with buttered crumbs, and add two cupfuls of sliced apples Sprinkle with one-eighth of a cupful of sugar mixed with one-eighth of a teaspoonful of grated nutmeg, three-fourths of a tablespoonful of juice and a few gratings from the rinds of a lemon. Repeat, cover with remaining crumbs, and bake 40 minutes in a moderate oven. Cover at first to prevent crumbs from browning too quickly. Serve with sugar and cream.

Scones.
Into a quart of flour stir a teaspoon Never such elegance for such small prices. Come quickly or baking powder. Sift three times, then chop into the mixture a heaping tablespoonful of butter, and blended add enough chilled milk to make a soft dough. Handle as little possible and turn out upon floured board.
